More Than Elections: How Democracies Transfer Power

JANUARY 29, 2010

eJournal USA, January 2010, Volume 15, Number 1

Democracy requires more than holding elections. Healthy democracies are defined by the expectations of citizens and the common rules, understandings, and trust they build. This eJournal USA explores the contours of civil society and political legitimacy within which peaceful transitions of power can occur. Full text is available at:
