

Public Affairs
Information Resource Center, Embassy Bangkok

@IRC

Tel: 02-205-4113 • Fax: 02-650-8918 • E-mail: irc@state.gov

The U.S. Embassy's Information Resource Center is pleased to invite you to join the U.S. government-sponsored "Global Pulse 2010" online event March 29-31, 2010. Register today!

GLOBAL PULSE 2010

MARCH 29 - 31, 2010

"There must be a sustained effort to listen to each other; to learn from one another; and to seek common ground."

-- President Barack Obama

Global Pulse 2010 is a three-day virtual event aimed at bringing together thousands of people from around the globe to discuss the world's most pressing challenges and envision solutions. This one-of-a-kind, three-day global online event will run from March 29 until March 31, 2010. Created to enable listening, learning and sharing of ideas among the global community, this initiative marks the commitment of the United States to meet the challenges of the 21st century by working towards universal goals in partnership with a wide variety of stakeholders.

Global Pulse 2010 is centered around ten pressing global challenges within the fields of science and technology, economic opportunity, and human development. This global event will feature international leaders from government, private industry, and civil society organizations, along with influential individuals who will guide the live, online conversations by encouraging dialogue and offering insight into the topics at hand.

DISCUSSION TOPICS

Inspiring a New Generation

Developing global citizens of the 21st century.

Empowering Women and Girls

Making gender equality a reality.

Enabling the Essential Education

What everyone should learn to succeed in the 21st century.

Building Stronger Partnerships

Exploring new ways to promote partnerships between societies, citizens, community organizations, and businesses as a means of creating sustainable solutions to shared development priorities.

Exercising Political and Civil Rights

Understanding rights, increasing citizens participation, and expanding accountability.

Promoting Global Health

Connecting and empowering individuals and communities to take charge over their own health and well-being.

Advancing Entrepreneurship, Trade & Economic Opportunity

Finding new ways to advance entrepreneurship, job creation, and economic opportunity.

Fostering Science, Technology & Innovation

Discovering new ways to support societies and build capacity by leveraging science and technology.

Supporting a Sustainable Planet

Exchanging lessons learned on how to address global climate change.

Pursuing Grand Challenges

Identifying the “grand challenges” of the next decade.

WHERE

Global Pulse 2010 is an online “virtual” event. Registration is FREE and participants can join from any computer with internet access. To register, visit <http://www.globalpulse2010.gov/register.html>.

WHEN

This live, online event will take place over a three-day period from Monday, March 29 until Wednesday, March 31, 2010.

For more information about Global Pulse 2010, visit www.GlobalPulse2010.gov.

Connect with US!

Follow the U.S. Embassy Bangkok on Twitter.